INTRODUCTION TO WOODFIRING 1 with Sandy Lockwood

Fri 16th, Sat 17th & Sun 18th August & unload Sat 24th August

This is a 4 day workshop of three days and then one day to unpack when the kiln is cool.

In this workshop students will be introduced to the process of wood firing. Students should bring bisque fired work. A number of studio glazes will be provided for the glazing of work. Students will learn about various aspects of preparing, loading and firing a wood kiln. The kiln will be unloaded and the results evaluated when the kiln has cooled a week later.

Each student will be able to fire a number of works.

Fees: $660 incl GST (This includes glaze and prepared wood)

A non-refundable deposit of $100 is required to secure a place.

I'll send out further information on the workshop including clays and slips to possibly use, forms to consider, etc. once I have your confirmation and deposit. And also some local accommodation options.

Please feel free to contact me by phone or email if you have any questions.
